

Get The Lead Out

Our Classic Blue Press Article goes back 5 years to November 2012. The Hi-Tek coated bullets were relatively new on the scene and we were urging shooters to try them out. Fast forward to 2017 and our opinions haven't changed. The Hi-Tek coated bullets are still the way to go for our competition pistol shooting and, we think, for yours too. This Classic Blue Press Article gives you the reasons why.
